

THE COMEBACK IS STRONGER — THAN THE SETBACK —

The Ecklemann-Taylor Speech and Hearing Clinic at Illinois State University is Back Open for Referrals

+ We're happy to report the Speech and Hearing Clinic is open for patients' speech and hearing needs. For safe, strategically sanitized and CDC-compliant in-office and telemedicine strategies, we're here, stronger than ever, with top-line specialty care.

A highlight of the measures we are taking:

Proper PPE

Mask requirements for patients and staff.

Spaced Scheduling

Lobby restructuring and limited visits.

Increased Sanitization

Increased sanitization stations and equipment sterilization.

COVID-19 Screenings

Staff and patient symptoms screenings.

Telehealth Care

Virtual consultations and appointments when needed.

Stay Connected

+ Please don't hesitate to contact us with any questions about the changes in our policies and procedures due to COVID-19. We look forward to seeing your patients in our offices soon!
